

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, “The just shall live by faith.”

ROMANS 1:16-17 NKJV

Berean Bible Church

Service of Worship & Communion

Sunday, 5 November, 2017

---

Sunday School 9:30am
Morning Worship - 10:40am | Evening Service - 6:00pm
Midweek Service (Wednesday) - 7:30pm
Hothersal Turning, St. Michael | Rev. Ronald Trotman - Pastor
Tel: 426-4707 | 571-4259
pastor@bereanbarbados.org | www.bereanbarbados.org

ALL ARE WELCOME!

God Will Use This

God is good at all times and in every way! You know it's true, but right now you're just not feeling it. Right now--a storm is raging in your life, and you're wondering if He's even noticed. Right now--waves are crashing over your head and you feel like you're drowning. Right now--the winds of adversity are threatening to capsize your boat and send it to the depths.

In the Bible, we read about a storm on the Sea of Galilee. At the end of a long day, Jesus suggested that He and His disciples go across to the other side, probably to escape the crowds and get some much-needed rest (see Mark 4:35-41). As soon as the boat left shore, Jesus settled down in the stern and fell asleep. Soon after, and without warning, the Sea of Galilee (notorious for sudden storms) began to rage around them. Waves crashed over the boat threatening to sink it, and still Jesus slept peacefully. Finally, fearing for their lives, the men awakened Jesus and asked, "Don't you care if we drown?" Jesus stood and spoke to the storm, "Peace, be still!" Immediately, the winds ceased and the sea became as smooth as glass. "Where is your faith?" He asked His disciples.

Jesus used this storm on the Sea of Galilee to strengthen His disciples' faith. He knew the times ahead would be difficult. In a dramatic demonstration of His power, He hoped to teach His disciples that He would always be with them, ready to answer whenever they called on Him.

Jesus was there to rescue His disciples, He's here with you as well, right in the middle of the storm in your life. God always uses the struggles in our lives. He doesn't allow us to suffer in vain. Ask yourself what lessons He might be teaching you.

1. He may be drawing you closer to Him. God is much more than the far-away Creator of the Universe. He wants to be right there with you as you encounter the struggles of this life. Hebrews 4:16 (ESV) says, "Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need." Open your heart to Him, go to your place of prayer, and reach out to Him.

2. He may be strengthening you. The stronger you are spiritually, the better you will fare when the storms come. Psalm 138:3 (HCSB) says, "On the day I called, You answered me; You increased strength within me." God wants to make us soldiers, ready to fight the good fight of faith. Pray boldly and stand strong in your faith.

3. He may be teaching you compassion for others. Jesus understands how we feel because He became one of us and experienced our suffering. In the same way, the storms in your life will increase your compassion for others. You can understand how another person feels because you've been there yourself. In 1 Peter 3:8 (HCSB), we read, "All of you should be like-minded and sympathetic, should love believers, and be compassionate and humble." Reach out to those you know who are suffering and point them to Jesus, your storm chaser.

4. He may be increasing your patience. An infant cries bitterly over every discomfort, expecting immediate attention to his or her needs. We often do the same. We want God to deal with our discomfort and meet our needs—right now! But God asks us to wait, to develop patience. Waiting often produces valuable insight into ourselves and our situation. Psalm 40:1 (NIV) says, "I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry." Ask God to give you peace as you wait on Him.

No matter how fierce the storm, how strong the waves, how deep the water, God is there with you, ready to use the storm for His purposes in your life. You are not alone in your suffering. He sees your struggle, and just as He did with Jesus' disciples on the Sea of Galilee, He will carry you safely to the other side.

Order of Service

Ministry of Music - Choir

Invocation

Hymn 44 - Be Thou exalted

Hymn 194 - Jesus is coming again

Hymn 872 - Brighten the corner

1st Scripture Reading: 1 Peter 4:7-17

Hymn 223 - Take time to be holy

Prayer

Notices & Offerings

Ministry of Music - Choir

Hymn 570 - Be still, my soul

Message: Bro. Tony Montague

Hymn

Distribution of Elements

Special Offering

2nd Scripture Reading:

Ministry of Music: Sis. Naomi Williams

Benediction - Choir

PLEASE REMEMBER TO PRAY FOR:

- Reaching 51 years as a Nation under God
- Our Outreach Ministries
- Our Youth Department
- The Sick and Shut-ins
- The work of the Gideons, CEF, ISCF and The Bible Society
- The Persecuted Church
- His tender mercy & grace, new everyday.

Join US this evening at 6pm for an engaging Bible Study

Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true.
Acts 17:11 NIV

November Birthdays

- |                        |                        |                      |
|------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|
| 3 - Henderson Phillips | 13 - Alfred Austin     | 24 - Jade King       |
| 5 - Pearlita Seale     | - Rickie Neblett       | 26 - Frances Patrick |
| - Audrey Thomas        | 15 - Darwin Brathwaite | 27 - Cecille Reid    |
| 12 - Rhonda Ifill      | 20 - Angela Bourne     | 28 - Peter Thomas    |
| - Sandra Piggott       | 22 - Sheila Gill       |                      |

Anniversaries

- |                              |                             |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 3 - Barry & Kim Ward         | 15 - Marion & Alfred Austin |
| 28 - William & Wendene Wells |                             |